Feed Your Neighbors

Busch's Fresh Food Market is partnering with local food banks to help reduce child hunger with the annual All aBout Children Food Drive, a community-based fundraiser where food and dollars raised in specific cities stay in those cities. The drive will run May 8-17 at all Busch's locations.

"Since 2009, the ABC Food Drive has raised over $850,000 in cash and food donations to help local families in need," said Doug Busch, community development director. "This is a community-based effort, and we wouldn't be able to do it without the generosity of our guests."

Guests will have the opportunity to donate five different ways, which include $5 toward produce, $10 in bakery, recycling slips, any cash amount or a $10 ready-to-go bag. Busch's will also be hosting a Grill Fest at all locations, 11 a.m. to 7:30 p.m., Friday, May 12, through Sunday, May 14, in which 20 percent of all sales, including ribs sales from Busch's new restaurant in Canton, J.B.'s Smokehouse, will be donated directly to the food drive. 🍷

Beth Olem Cemetery To Be Open Sunday, May 7

The Board of Trustees of Clover Hill Park Cemetery and Congregation Shaarey Zedek welcome the community to visit Beth Olem Cemetery (Smith Street Cemetery) on May 7 between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Beth Olem Cemetery was established in 1862 and remains one of the oldest historic sites in the Jewish community of Greater Detroit. With the cooperation of the cities of Detroit, Hamtramck and the continuing support of General Motors Corporation, Beth Olem Cemetery has retained the dignity and spirituality of the founders of the Jewish community of Detroit.

Beth Olem is located on the site of the General Motors Cadillac (Poletown) Plant. Entrance to the cemetery is through the truck gate. Plant security will assist visitors in locating the cemetery site. 🍷

Winter Workshop For Literacy Tutors

"Building Sound and Vocabulary Skills for Beginning Readers" is the subject of the Detroit Jewish Coalition for Literacy's (DJCL) workshop for literacy tutors on Friday, May 12, from 10 a.m.-noon, at the Max M. Fisher Federation Building in Bloomfield Township.

Designed to inform and inspire volunteers, the program will feature Tyra Thompson, a program coordinator for the Dominican Literacy Center (DLC). At the workshop, Thompson will demonstrate how phonemic awareness, the ability to notice, think about and work with individual sounds in words, and vocabulary development go hand-in-hand to help build students' reading success.

Founded and facilitated by the Jewish Community Relations Council/AJC, the DJCL engages volunteers from local Jewish organizations, impacting kindergarten through fourth-grade students in schools in Detroit and Oakland County through tutoring and enrichment programs and book drives.

To register for the May 12 workshop, or to learn more about DJCL volunteer opportunities, contact Literacy Coordinator Sandy Lippitt at (248) 642-2649 or slippitt@jfmfd.org. 🍷
