

Tenors Unlimited

Bob Saget

released in paperback — no doubt there's mention of the Grammy-nominated stand-up comedian's raunchy, scene-stealing cameos in Entourage and The Aristocrats. Check him out at the Royal Oak Music Theatre, Friday, Jan. 15. $39.50-$55. (248) 399-2980; royaloakmusictheatre.com.

MAN BAND

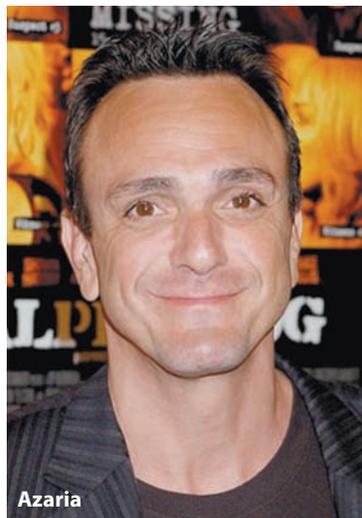

Like a boy band but all grown up, the UK's Tenors Unlimited is known as the Rat Pack of Opera. In their new show, Show the Suit Who's Boss — to be performed 8 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 16, at the JCC's Berman Center for Performing Arts — the Tenors combine rich vocal harmonies with an entertaining sense of humor: It's a journey through signature pieces of opera, classical-crossover melodies, contemporary standards, musical theater and more. $30-$35. (248) 661-1900; theberman.org. *

Friedman

only one way to fight — coming directly at his opponent. Camila Giorgi, 23, of Italy is a quality member of the women's pro tennis tour. Arielle Ship, 20, a junior soccer forward at UC Berkeley (14-5-1) scored 34 points and was named All-PAC 12, 1st-team. Jackie Friedman, 22, a senior defender at Dartmouth, was named the Ivy League Defensive Player of the Year.

College Football: Josh Rosen, 18, UCLA, QB. Rosen is starting at QB as true freshman for the Bruins. His poise in the pocket and strong, accurate arm makes it likely that he will turn pro before he graduates. Mike Bercovici, 22, Arizona State, QB. Bercovici earned the loyalty of Sun Devils' fans and staff alike by refusing to transfer out when it seemed certain he would not get the chance to start until his senior year. As it turned out, an injury to the QB after the midway point of the 2014 season gave him the chance to prove his worth earlier than anticipated.

Azaria

NEW ON TV

Bordertown is an animated Fox series from Seth McFarlane about two families (one Mexican and one Anglo) living on the border. Most of the voices of the Anglo family are provided by tribe members: Hank Azaria, 51, Alex Bornstein, 42, and Judah Friedlander, 46. (Bordertown premiered Jan. 3; new shows air Sunday at 9:30 p.m.). *

EXERCISE YOUR BRAIN*

*No workout clothes required.

Put Your Best Brain Forward

Mind University is a new cognitive wellness initiative offering health and wellness workshops, family support, and Mind Aerobics, an innovative, evidence-based program to help adults maintain or strengthen their brain function.

Mind Aerobics, developed by the New England Cognitive Center, stimulates six major functions of the brain:

- Reaction time
- Visual/spatial relations
- Attention and concentration
- Memory
- Language
- Problem solving

Classes are organized by cognitive level; each level has 24 sessions held over 12 weeks.

For more information, please contact the Jewish Family Service Resource Center at 248-592-2313.

Funded by

